Prelude

“Here I am Lord”

Wonder, Love, & Praise Hymn 812
Sung by Amalia Dobbins

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin
My hand will save.
I who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Refrain Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard You calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me,
I will hold your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people’s pain.
I have wept for love of them,
They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
Give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them.
Whom shall I send? Refrain

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them,
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide
’Til their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send? Refrain

“O Lord, increase our faith”

Henry Loosemore (c. 1600-1670)
Sung by Quartet

O Lord, increase our faith,
strengthen us and confirm us in thy true faith;
endue us with wisdom, charity, chastity and patience,
in all our adversity.
Sweet Jesu, say Amen.

Welcome

Grant, Almighty God, that we, who have been redeemed from the old life of sin by our baptism into the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ, may be renewed in your Holy Spirit, and live in righteousness and true holiness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

Isaiah 61: 1-9

The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me;
 he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed,
 to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives,
 and release to the prisoners;
 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor,
 and the day of vengeance of our God;
 to comfort all who mourn;
 to provide for those who mourn in Zion—to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning,
 the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit.
 They will be called oaks of righteousness,
 the planting of the Lord, to display his glory.
 They shall build up the ancient ruins,
 they shall raise up the former devastations;
 they shall repair the ruined cities,
 the devastations of many generations.
 Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, foreigners shall till your land and dress your vines;
 but you shall be called priests of the Lord,
 you shall be named ministers of our God;
 you shall enjoy the wealth of the nations,

and in their riches you shall glory.
Because their shame was double,
and dishonor was proclaimed as their lot, therefore they shall possess a double portion;
everlasting joy shall be theirs.
For I the Lord love justice,
I hate robbery and wrongdoing;
I will faithfully give them their recompense,
and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
Their descendants shall be known among the nations,
and their offspring among the peoples;
all who see them shall acknowledge that they are a people whom the Lord has blessed.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 139: 1-9

O Lord, you have searched me and known me.
You know when I sit down and when I rise up;
you discern my thoughts from far away.
You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.
Even before a word is on my tongue,
O Lord, you know it completely.
You hem me in, behind and before,
and lay your hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
it is so high that I cannot attain it.
Where can I go from your spirit?
Or where can I flee from your presence?
If I ascend to heaven, you are there;
if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there.
If I take the wings of the morning and settle at the farthest limits of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me,
and your right hand shall hold me fast.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Romans 12: 1-8

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew (5:1-12)

People: Glory to you Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

“Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

“Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

The musical score is written for four-part harmony (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in a 4-part setting. It consists of three systems of music. The first system covers the first line of lyrics, the second system covers the second line, and the third system covers the third line. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a clear melody and accompaniment.

Meditation

“Oceans” Where feet may fail

By Hillsong United
Sung by Amalia Dobbins

You call me out upon the waters
The great unknown. Where feet may fail
And there I find You in the mystery
In oceans deep my faith will stand.
And I will call upon Your name
And keep my eyes above the waves
When oceans rise my soul will rest in Your embrace
For I am Yours. You are mine.

Your grace abounds in deepest waters
Your sovereign hand will be my guide.
Where feet may fail and fear surrounds me
You've never failed and You won't start now

So I will call upon Your name
And keep my eyes above the waves
When oceans rise my soul will rest in Your embrace
For I am Yours. And You are mine.

Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders
Let me walk upon the waters
Wherever You would call me
Take me deeper than my feet could ever wander
And my faith will be made stronger
In the presence of my Savior

I will call upon Your name
Keep my eyes above the waves
My soul will rest in Your embrace
I am Yours. And You are mine.

Offertory Anthem

“Listen sweet dove”

Grayston Ives (b. 1948)

Listen sweet dove unto my song, and spread thy golden wings in me;
hatching my tender heart so long,
till it get wing and flie away with thee.

The sunne which once did shine alone, hung down his head and wisht for night, when he beheld twelve sunnes for one going about the world and giving light.

Such glorious gifts thou didst bestow
the earth did like a heav’n appeare, the starres were coming down to know if they might mend their wages and serve here.

Lord though we change thou art the same,
the same sweet God of love and light:
restore this day for thy great name, unto his ancient and miraculous right.

Bishop The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Bishop Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Bishop Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Bishop It is a right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. (An appropriate Proper Preface is offered here and the service continues.) Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Bishop We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

People We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Bishop And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all of your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Bishop And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

The Book of Common Prayer, Pg. 364

Our Father, who are in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion Hymn (Congregational hymns)

“Let us break bread together on our knees”

Hymn 325

Let us break bread together on our knees; Let us break bread together on our knees;
when I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, O Lord, have mercy on me.

Let us drink wine together on our knees; Let us drink wine together on our knees;
when I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, O Lord, have mercy on me.

Let us praise God together on our knees; Let us praise God together on our knees;
when I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, O Lord, have mercy on me.

“One Bread, One Body”

LEVAS II #151

Refrain:

One bread, one body, one lord of all,
one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth,
We are one body in this one Lord.

1. Gentile or Jew, servant or free, woman or man, no more. Refrain
2. Many the gifts, many the works, one in the Lord of all. Refrain
3. Grain for the fields, scattered and grown, gathered to one for all. Refrain

“Amazing Grace”

Hymn 671

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
was blind, but now I see.
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear and grace my fears relieved; how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!
3. The Lord has promised good to me, his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.
4. Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.
5. When we've been there ten thousand years bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.

Post Communion Prayer

The Book of Common Prayer, Pg. 365

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.

Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A note from St. Michael's

Welcome to St. Michael's! We are a church on a mission to make Christ known within and beyond our walls. Over the past year we've watched the pandemic change the way we live, learn, and love. We've tried to hold onto the familiar, comfortable, and "the way it used to be." We've prayed beside the vulnerable, sick, and dying. We've been hurt, saddened, and wounded by those close to us. We've been confused, anxious, and at a loss for words by things we can't control. However, we've also experienced profoundly holy, blissful, and joyful moments. We've laughed, cried, and laughed until we've cried. We've listened, served others, and responded to the needs around us. We've enjoyed moments of happiness, cheerfulness, and deep contentment. We've also had a year hallmarked by heightened emotions, changing feelings, and competing thoughts. But, the good news is that we have never been alone. Through it all, the abundant love of God has been present in our lives, especially during the moments of scarcity. The real power of the Gospels, revealed in Jesus' resurrection, have beckoned us to explore new beginnings. And the strength of the Holy Spirit has continued to guide us, especially during the moments we have been completely lost. Therefore, as we gather together today as the Body of Christ, St. Michael's is honored to be a part of this special day. Thank you for allowing us the privilege of playing a small role in your faith journey. May God's blessings be upon you this day and forever more. +

About the service

Through the sacrament of Baptism, we are made full members in the Body of Christ, and in it we are sealed and confirmed as Christ's own forever. Confirmation is the Rite of Re-affirmation of one's Baptismal vows made in the context of the faith community that includes the laying on of hands by a bishop. Candidates for Confirmation are presented and asked to reaffirm their renunciation of evil and a renewal of their commitment to Jesus Christ. The responses of a candidate is a representation of the continuing work of the Holy Spirit in their life and their connection to the wider apostolic community.

The act of reaffirmation is an acknowledgment that an individual is an ambassador for Christ, having found new meaning, empowerment, healing or transformation in faith. Those witnessing these promises agree to support those who are recommitting themselves to their life in Christ. Preceding and following such a reaffirmation (whether Confirmation, Reception from another denomination into the Episcopal Church, or one's Re-affirmation years after one's Confirmation), candidates acknowledge the ongoing, faith-forming education for discipleship, service and mission, and understanding that all Christians continue their journey of faith within the context of a supportive faith community.
